NEW ENGLAND IS IN GRIP OF BIG DROUGHT

Boston (AP) — Gov. Paul A. Dever closed the woods in eight Eastern Massachusetts counties today as a month-long New England drought continued.

The governor's action came as it appeared no appreciable rain was in sight.

The long dry spell has cost farmers so many millions of dollars already that an agriculture spokesman placed the value of rainfall at a million dollars an inch.

The Connecticut Valley Cigar Tobacco Associates—faced with an expensive crop loss—have authorized a Cambridge firm of artificial rainmakers to do their job as soon as conditions are practicable.

A special meeting will be held at the Ellington, Conn., Town Hall tonight at which tobacco growers and potato farmers will be asked to back the project.

Worcester Mass County farmers also asked permission to "seed" the clouds for rain. The state weather control board will consider the petition in a public hearing.

Massachusetts state officials have sent a plea to Washington to put this state in the disaster class so drought-stricken farmers will be eligible for federal loans.

The federal Agriculture Department has already declared Tennessee and parts of Missouri and Arkansas as disaster areas. Similar action is planned for Alabama, Kentucky, Mississippi and other regions.

The Boston area and some other areas in New England got only .52 of an inch of rain in July, making this the longest dry spell in 184 years. The .52 inches of rain is 2.14 inches less than normal for July.

Pastures in most of New England are in the worst condition in the memory of dairymen. Maine reports an estimated seven million dollar loss to farmers not including the effect in potatoes.

Ocean Hop Finished By Flying Windmills

Prestwick, Scotland (AP) — Two U. S. Army Sikorsky, the first helicopters to fly the Atlantic, arrived here today after 3,300 mile "hop-along" flight from Westover, Mass.

The two flying windmills had taken off from Keflavik, Iceland, on the last and longest hop of their Atlantic flight.

The experimental flight was launched by the Military Transport Service to test the feasibility of delivering helicopters to Europe by air.

The planes started from Westover Air Force Base two weeks ago on a six-stop, 4,000 mile flight to Weisbaden, Germany.

For the history-making trip, the planes—Sikorsky H-19s—were loaded with heavy supplies of gas and were accompanied by a C-54 transport. A pilot and co-pilot, and expert helicopter mechanics went along in the transport.

14 Appointed to The Wage Stabilization Board by Truman

Washington (AP) — President Truman has appointed 14 members of a new Wage Stabilization Board stripped of authority to deal with nationwide labor disputes. Four additional members will be named later.

The new board came into existence yesterday when the old board headed by Nathan Feinsinger, expired. Congress ordered the old board disbanded following a controversy touched off by recommendations it made last March in an effort to settle the steel dispute.

Of the 14 members named by President Truman yesterday, only two are new. They are Chairman Archibald Cox, a Harvard law professor and one of six public members, and public member Harold (Turn to Page Twelve)

M'ARTHUR TO WORK FOR REMINGTON RAND

New York (AP) — Gen. of the Army Douglas MacArthur today accepted the chairmanship of Remington Rand, Inc., manufacturers of business machines and electronics equipment.

His acceptance was announced by James H. Rand, president, who said the post had been offered MacArthur nearly three years ago.

The company made no mention of the governor's salary as chairman, but it was previously reported unofficially he had been offered $100,000 a year.

A company spokesman indicated the general will retain his Army rank, on an unassigned basis. His status will be similar to that of Gen. of the Army, Dwight D. Eisenhower when Eisenhower was President of Columbia University.

WOMAN DESIGNER OF PROMINENCE IS DEAD

New York (AP) — Alice D. Laughlin, great granddaughter of the late James Laughlin, a co-founder of Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp., and one of the few American women designers of stained glass, died last night at New York Hospital.

She had been ill of heart disease for several months.

Miss Laughlin was born in Pittsburgh, the daughter of Mrs. James B. Laughlin, of Pittsburgh and Hyannis, Mass., and the late James B. Laughlin, who was treasurer of Jones and Laughlin.

Millionth Draftee Is Inducted at Detroit

Detroit (AP) — A typical 23-year-old neither delighted nor gripped and leaving a sweetheart behind—today became the millionth draftee since the beginning of the Korean War.

He is Arthur Weinfeld, and for a year he has been expecting this day—induction day.

With a resigned, "I might as well get it over with," Weinfeld volunteered for induction after his graduation from Wayne University in 1951. Detroit Draft Board 97 took up its option today.

No. 1,000,000 is the son of Joseph Weinfeld, a tool inspector on war production work at the Hudson Motor Car Company. Waiting with the father for Art's return will be his mother, Vera, 49; his sister, Elsie, 16, and his sweetheart, Rita Beitner, 20.

Arnall Says Steel Price Boost Will Cost Average American Family $100 Per Year

Washington (AP) — Price Stabilizer Ellis Arnall predicts the new steel price boost will cost the average American family about $100 a year in higher prices.

Arnall said in a television NBC interview that the $5.20 per ton price boost he signed reluctantly yesterday would touch off a new round of inflation.

He made it clear the steel increase was not his own choice, but as ordered by acting Defense Mobilizer John R. Steelman. Arnall said last night it was "a very, very bitter pill for me."

Some of Arnall's close associates said the former Georgia governor may decide to quit as

By The Associated Press

Republicans kept the civil rights pot boiling today for the purpose of cooking the Democrats' goose.

Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts, chairman of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's campaign advisory committee, said the selection of Sen. John J. Sparkman of Alabama as the Democratic vice presidential nominee shows the Democratic party intends to do nothing constructive about civil rights.

Sen. Richard M. Nixon of California, Eisenhower's GOP vice presidential running mate, told newsmen in Fresno, Calif., however, that Sparkman is not a true Southern candidate and is known to be completely pro-Truman.

It was President Truman's insistence on federal civil rights legislation that split the Democratic party in 1948 and lost the electoral votes of four Southern states. Some Democratic leaders in the South are unhappy about the party's 1952 stand on civil rights and have not yet decided whether to support the Democratic ticket of Gov. Adlai Stevenson and Sen. Sparkman.

Chairman Arthur Summerfield of the GOP National Committee rubbed more salt in the wounds yesterday with the assertion that Stevenson and Sparkman are "hand-picked candidates of President Truman" and will be "expected to carry on the Truman tradition."

Sparkman, in Washington, said he will have something to say about civil rights in response to a series of questions in a telegram from Rep. Powell, New York Negro Democrat.

At the Illinois capital, Gov. Stevenson made a few remarks on civil rights issues in his first news conference since the Democrats nominated him.

At his campaign headquarters in Denver, Eisenhower booked an engagement to attend a 37-tribe Indian ceremonial at Gallup, N. M., Aug. 10. It will give him an opportunity to put in some links for the election of Republican senators and House members this fall in New Mexico and Arizona.

Eisenhower has said he wants the GOP campaign to give as much emphasis to the congressional races as to his bid for the presidency.

NEW CAPTURED LIST

Munson, Korea (AP) — The United Nations Command today added 45 names to the list of U. N. personnel it says were captured by the Reds and asked for an accounting. The names were not made public. They were given to the Reds at a 35-minute staff officers' session at Panmunjom.

Noble Big Shots In Egypt Lose Titles Under New Decree

Cairo, Egypt (AP) — Egypt's thousands of noble big shots today became just plain "El Miry El-fendi"—local for John Doe—following abolition of the Nile kingdom's ancient titles of bey and pasha.

The pashas and beys—Egypt's nobility—lost their handles under a decree last night by the reform Cabinet of Premier Aiy Maher. Maher and the dominant figure of his regime, Army Commander in Chief Gen. Mohamed Nubawi, were themselves affected. Maher had been a pasha, Nubawi a bey.

The royally-conferred titles carried no salaries but meant a lot in prestige and influence.

As yet, however, there was no indication how deep the government's promises of an unrelenting fight on graft and corruption would cut into the ranks of Egypt's now—untitled ruling class. (Turn to Page Twelve)

ENDORSES BARD

Harrisburg (AP) — Guy K. Bard, Democratic candidate for U. S. Senator had the endorsement of the AFL-Pennsylvania Federation of Labor today as a man who has been "very helpful and understanding to the problems of the little man." Praise for Bard, who gave up his post as federal judge to become a candidate, came from James L. McDevitt, Federation president, yesterday following a meeting of the executive council.

Assisting in presentation of the Eagle awards were the following who had previously won this honor: Clark Wright, Bob Koebley, Lewis Garber and William Wehrer.

It was "stunt night" around the campfire, with six troops providing the entertainment. In addition, a visiting group was present, Troop 10 of Farrell. The Farrell boys, who are spending two weeks in the Allegheny National Forest, paid Camp Olmsted a visit and also provided part of the program.

SIX SWEDISH REDS GUILTY OF ESPIONAGE

Stockholm, Sweden (AP) — Six Swedish Communists were convicted of selling vital defense secrets to Russia today and two were sentenced to life imprisonment at hard labor. A seventh was acquitted.

The Swedish government charged them with turning over to the Russians full details of their country's northern defenses against any Russian attack across neighboring Finland.

Fritiof Enbom, 33-year-old confessed mastermind of the Soviet spy ring, and his chief accomplice, Juge Gersvold, both drew life terms at hard labor. The ring-leader's younger brother, Martin Enbom, drew a seven-year sentence.

The seventh accused member of the ring, acquitted for lack of proof, was Tage Wickstrom, 37, a clerk in the Army Fortification Construction Bureau.

The Enbom brothers and Gersvold confessed. The elder Enbom, an editor and agitator, said he had collected military and industrial information for the Russians for six years, turning it over to Soviet embassy officials in return for cash.

He admitted giving the Soviets data on Sweden's strongest modern fortress, near Boden, 75 miles from the Finnish border. Other information collected included maps of secret military roads, forts and field fortifications, locations of transformer stations, ammunition and fuel dumps, and up-to-date lists of armaments and military equipment.

PENITENTIARY WARDEN GIVEN A SUSPENSION

Denver (AP) — A two-year suspension from his job as warden of Colorado's penitentiary was handed Roy Best, president of the National Wardens' Association, by the state Civil Service Commission yesterday.

Best, who was acquitted in two court cases during the past year and a half, said he will appeal the "ridiculous decision" to the state courts.

The unanimous decision of the three-man Civil Service Commission did not specify the counts upon which the warden was convicted.

Large Number Of Building Permits Issued During July

Although no building permits were issued on this, the last day of the month, at the Municipal offices, July was a busy month insofar as that office was concerned, with a number of new homes being planned, as well as numerous alterations and repairs, and several garages.

One of the larger undertakings is the construction of a new brick veneer home at 24 Redwood street by Harry Segel. Cost was estimated at $25,000.

Robert Engle is building a story and a half dwelling at 207 Orchard street, with ultimate cost set at $8,500.

Dr. E. R. Anderson obtained a building permit for an addition to his residence at 105 Central avenue, at an estimated outlay of $3,500.

Work of installing a new roof on the First Church of Christ Scientist, 312 Market street, is being completed by Laco Applicators Co., Inc., of Jamestown, at a cost of $2,750.

Alan J. Loper is adding a dormer to his home at 7 Verbeck street, to cost $2,000.

Another attractive new residence is to be built by Quentin Holt at 16 Conewango Place. This is a wood and frame house to cost $15,000. Ralph Theodore is making alterations of his store building at 706 Conewango avenue which will provide two apartments instead of one, and a small office building is being built by R. Punskey's Sons, 802 Lexington avenue, to replace a structure destroyed by fire, several months ago. Lois Culver secured a permit for construction of a ramp from the street level to her home at 726 Market street.

With a $440,000 permit issued to the Warren Borough School Authority for construction of the new elementary school on Conewango avenue also included in the month's report, July building activity in Warren reached a new high.

HIKE INTEREST RATE ON BORROWED MONEY

Washington (AP) — For the first time in more than 20 years, the Treasury is going to pay as much as two per cent interest on money borrowed for a one-year period.

One-year certificates bearing that rate were offered in exchange yesterday to holders of $2,415,648,000 in two series of 11-month, 1 1/2 per cent certificates that fall due Aug. 15 and Sept. 1, respectively.

The move to the higher interest level was attributed to the "neutrality" policy being followed by the federal reserve to keep money tight and check inflation.

BUTLER GIRL DROWNS IN MASSACHUSETTS

Southwick, Mass. (AP) — Police dragged Congamond Lake today for the body of Yvonne Kennedy, 17, of Butler, Pa., missing overnight and believed to have drowned.

The girl was employed by a Westfield tobacco corporation and had been living at a Southwick camp.

With other girls, she was at the lake last night. Her absence was noted when they returned to camp.

63 B29s in U. S. Armada That Levels Red Plant Near Border

"FLYING SAUCER" PURSUERS—Jet crew members of the 142nd Fighter-Interceptor Squadron stand on the flight line in front of their F-94's in New Castle, Del., to discuss the mission which sent them swooping over Washington in pursuit of elusive "flying saucers." The Air Force has summoned aeronautical and physics experts to Washington for a conference after the second appearance of the mysterious objects over the Capital within a week.

ALL PLANES REACH BASES UN DAMAGED

Seoul, Korea (AP) — U. S. B29s leveled a huge Communist aluminum plant near the Manchurian border early today in the biggest overnight raid of the Korean war.

The 63 unescorted bombers braved Red anti-aircraft fire and fighter opposition which American pilots described as "the heaviest in months." But all returned safely to their bases in Japan and Korea.

The 12 1/2 acre factory of the Oriental Light Metals Co., 10 miles southeast of Sinuiju, went up in smoke and flame after the B29s hurled 630 tons of bombs on it and an adjacent troop building area.

Five other Superforts hit other North Korean targets. The 63-plane armada which blasted the metals plant was the biggest Superfort raid of the war against a single objective.

Pilots reported flak from the Manchurian as well as the Korean side of the border, about four miles from the metals plant. It was the northernmost penetration of the year by B29s.

Brig. Gen. Wiley D. Ganey, head of the U. S. Fifth Air Force Bomber Command, predicted the blow would have a psychological impact on the Communists. An Air Force statement called the raid a calculated effort to force the hand of stalling Communist truce negotiators.

The target was saturated with 500-pound bombs, some of which will not explode for hours or even days. The plant area has been showered with leaflets for almost two months, warning non-combatants to stay away because it would be bombed.

GOODWILL ENVOY IS DELAYED ON ARRIVAL

Washington (AP) — Max Conrad, Minneapolis flier, completed his second round trip to Europe in his Piper Pacer airplane yesterday and got a cool reception from customs officials here.

Returning from a good-will trip to the Scandinavian countries on behalf of the Minneapolis Aquatennial, Conrad arrived unannounced and had to circle Washington National Airport for a while until arrangements were made with the customs office.

Conrad said customs officials were not pleased to see him, since they had not expected an arrival from abroad. But difficulties were cleared up in an hour or so.

Fatality Every Five Hours on State Highways During 1951

Harrisburg (AP) — One person was killed every five hours and another injured every eight minutes on Pennsylvania highways during 1951, the State Bureau of Highway Safety said today.

The bureau issued a booklet in which it reported 1,642 persons, including 565 pedestrians, died in traffic accidents—an increase of eight per cent above 1950.

The number of injured during last year totaled some 65,643, the bureau said.

"Despite the higher death toll, the Commonwealth's traffic death rate in 1951 remained at 5.5, the same as the previous year and well below the national average, said J. E. Smiley, the bureau's research and statistical chief.

"It's our lowest rate in history," he said, "although last year we had a record number of 3,267,186 vehicle registrations and a much higher gas consumption than this year before.

"Also, our rate beats that of any comparable state including California, Michigan and New York," he added.

The death rate is based on the number of traffic fatalities per one hundred thousand vehicle miles.

He said the "brightest spot" at the minute is in 1952's pedestrian fatalities. The number is running lower than ever before.

"Sometimes pedestrian deaths amount to 55 per cent of the total. Right now they are about 33-34 per cent," he said.

ROBINSON ACQUITTED

Santa Ana, Calif. (AP) — Edward G. Robinson Jr., 19, son of the actor, was acquitted yesterday of bad check charges by a jury. He was accused of writing a worthless check for $119.43 for trousers, but testified he stopped payment because he thought he was overcharged. He later made restitution.

Boro Manager for Two Years Leaves for New Post Friday

In shirt sleeves and his hair somewhat ruffled, Leslie M. McConnell was busily engaged today in readying the borough manager's office in Municipal Building for its new incumbent, whomever he may be.

Mr. McConnell, borough manager of Warren since he came here April 17, 1950, from Ketchikan, Alaska, will leave early tomorrow for Council Bluffs, Iowa, where he will become city manager when Council Bluffs' municipal offices open on Monday morning. He will be accompanied by Mrs. McConnell and their son, Gerry.

There were many last-minute jobs to occupy Mr. McConnell's attention today. He turned over to C. W. Barwis the work of borough secretary which position Mr. Barwis will hold in interim until a new borough manager is selected.

And to Councilman Leon Laskaris Mr. McConnell gave a file containing no less than 20 applications for the position of borough manager of Warren. Mr. Laskaris is chairman of Council's selection committee. Although there had been rumors that two Warren men were after the job, Mr. McConnell said today the file containing no applications from local residents.

Completion of installation of three new traffic lights, at Conewango and McPherson, Pennsylvania and Elm, Pennsylvania and Parker, is now in the hands of Burgess William Crossett.

Also into the portfolio of Mr. McConnell today was the file containing no applications from local residents.

POLIO CASES RUNNING HIGHER THAN IN 1951

Harrisburg (AP) — Pennsylvania's polio total for the first seven months of 1952 with 86 reported cases is running one above the total for the same period last year.

Allegheny with 16 and Philadelphia with 13 were the only counties reporting more than 10 cases since Jan. 1, the State Health Department said.

At the same time the State Bureau of Vital Statistics placed the total deaths due to infantile paralysis during January, February and March at 18. These are the latest figures available, the Bureau said.

Sixteen deaths were caused by polio in the first three months of 1951, the bureau added, with a total of 43 for that year.

Cost of Living Index Reaches Highest Mark Ever Recorded in Pennsylvania

Harrisburg (AP) — The cost of living today equaled the highest mark ever reached in Pennsylvania, the Department of Labor and Industry reported.

The department's cost of living index stood at 184.5 for the March 15-June 16 period equalling the all-time high reported in December, 1951.

This represented a .9 per cent increase over the first quarter index for 1952 and offset a slight decline during that three-month period.

The department said "sharp increases" in retail food prices were the prime cause of the general cost of living boost.

Food was up 2.3 per cent over prices of the various quarter, the department explained. Higher prices on pork, veal, lamb, bread, eggs and sugar chiefly were responsible.

Frozen, canned and dried fruit and vegetables, poultry, fish, dairy products, fats and oils dropped in price.

The greatest decrease was in the house furnishings index which fell two per cent, the department said.

Second Jamestown Man Drops Dead On Visit to Borough

For the second time in less than a week a New York state man died suddenly while in Warren temporarily, when Martin J. Peterson, 68, Ellicott street, Jamestown, collapsed in his car on Pennsylvania avenue near the P. R. R. tracks last evening and was pronounced dead on arrival at Warren General Hospital. Last Sunday evening, Levi Ostrom, of Bonniwood, near Stillwater, was pronounced dead when rushed to the hospital after being taken ill en route from Ridgway to his home.

According to the story as related by friends of Mr. Peterson, he came to Warren last evening with two companions, associate employees of the Marlin-Rockwell Co., at Jamestown. They are Alvin Rog-

Round Silver Ball Is Reported Over Spartansburg Area

Titusville Herald: A Spartansburg area man, Ernie Platt, saw a round silver ball moving past his home at 6:05 p. m. yesterday until it disappeared in vapor from which sparks seemingly flashed.

Mr. Platt said he was leaving his home two miles north of Spartansburg to go to the borough when he saw the "big aluminum ball" in the sky. He backed up to his driveway and called to his wife who saw it also.

By compass reading the object was headed a little south of west when it suddenly turned and went north. It was about 2,000 feet up, Mr. Platt estimated.

As it went north it seemed to be enveloped in fog or vapor and the Platts thought they could see something like sparks emitting from the front end of the vapor.

Time is running out on local and state motorists who have not yet had their cars inspected. The deadline is midnight Thursday and state police said there will be no extension of that time. Garages are experiencing the familiar rush which twice yearly occurs near the end of the inspection period.

OLIO IN BRADFORD
The fourth and fifth police victims of the summer were diagnosed at Bradford Hospital Monday and it was announced that Olean General Hospital had volunteered the use of its iron lung to the Bradford institution for reserve equipment. The victims are a 21, 23 months old, and a four-year-old boy.

BLESS CLAIMS
Claims for unemployment benefits filed in the week ending July were the lowest in number since the start of the current steel industry dispute early in June, according to a report today by the state Bureau of Employment Security. The total of approximately 137,400 claims for unemployment insurance in the reported week was some 26,000 less than the figure in the preceding week.

ARROW ESCAPE
A two-year-old Corby boy, who fell to the highway near Corby on a car driven by his father, Elbur A. Taylor, escaped serious injury or death yesterday afternoon when Jerry Damon of Corby, driving a truck approaching the Corby car, swerved off the road in an effort to avoid striking the child. The boy suffered lacerations, contusions, abrasions and bruises from a fall.

AR ON "COWBOYS"
Eighteen Vanango County deputy sheriffs and extra patrols of state policemen arriving during the reckless driving, speeding and general disorderly conduct of motorists on the county's highways, it was revealed Tuesday. The county-wide campaign to put a stop to the antics of "cowboy" drivers has already resulted in several arrests and "more will follow" unless the speedsters pull in their horns, authorities stated.

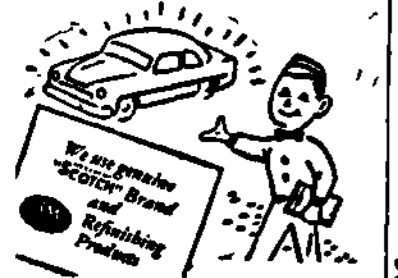

FTER DOGS
Seven state dog law enforcement officers spent Tuesday morning, rounding up all canines on loose and putting those without licenses to death in a gas chamber they had with them. Licensed dogs are kept ten days in pound for redemption. The officers' visit was part of a campaign throughout Northwestern Pennsylvania. Corby residents had ample warning of the roundup from their chief of police.

GH COLLECTION RATE
Mrs. Lillian Marvin, Oil City tax collector, reported at a special meeting of the Oil City School board Monday afternoon that the property tax collection for 1951 is 98.10 percent, second highest percentage in history. The per capita tax collection was $2.73 per capita, down one and a half percent from the previous year, she said. The board issued a warrant to the treasurer to collect the 1952 duplicate.

CIAL SECURITY
Pittsville's council adopted an ordinance establishing social security for city employees at a special meeting last night. Following an explanation of technical points in the social security law by Alvin F. Papp, manager of Oil City Social Security office, the ordinance was passed unanimously. The plan, however, can not go into effect immediately because the state has not completed negotiations with the Federal government enabling workers in Pennsylvania to be under the plan. But it is expected that the state and federal authorities will sign an agreement by soon. The ordinance provides that coverage will be made retroactive to January 1, 1951, because most cases it will mean higher benefit payments.

Fruit Forecast In State This Season Is Above Average

Harrisburg—While fruit prospects in Pennsylvania are somewhat below last year, most production reports are for better than average crops, the State Department of Agriculture announced following Federal-State surveys as of July 1.

Rainy weather at blossom time reduced pollination and cut into the 1952 apple prospects, the Department said. Production for this year is estimated at 6,279,000 bushels compared with 7,626,000 last year and the 10-year 1941-50 average of 6,684,000. Pears are indicated at 205,000 bushels against 200,000 last year and the average of 277,000 bushels.

Peaches made good progress during June and the estimated 2,308,000 bushels compares with 2,352,000 last year and the average of 2,051,000 bushels. The 1952 cherry harvest, now about completed, is estimated at 10,800 tons compared with an all-time record of 13,600 tons last year and the average of 7,310 tons.

The Pennsylvania grape crop is forecast at 16,900 tons which would equal the 10-year average and is only 500 tons below production last year. The estimated crop, however, is only 55 per cent of the record high 1950 production of 30,900 tons, the survey disclosed. In the Erie belt tornado-force winds and hail damaged most vineyards, causing a heavy drop of berries in the main North East section. Dry weather also caused many berries to drop and has resulted in a poor set in most vineyards.

The set of apples varies by orchards, the Department noted. In general, the set in the northwest part of the state is not as heavy as last year. In the northeast it is spotty with a heavy set of Baldwin, McIntosh and Cortland. In the Adams-Franklin-York area, Yorks have a spotty set and Staymans and Romes are very light.

Sheep are raised for meat and wool; hide is secondary.

WHAT DAY of the week did that date fall on? If the date happens to be some time in the past or future it often is a struggle to find out. Now Arthur A. Merrill, an engineer for the General Electric Co., comes up with this chart which is not as complicated as it looks.

Suppose it is July 4, 1776, you are checking. Find the first three digits of the year, 177, in the left hand table, then read across to the column headed by the fourth digit, 6. That gives you your key letter, H.

Now go to the right hand table and find July. Read across until you come to H. Then follow down the column in which you find H and down the chute below it to the proper calendar which will show you that July 4, 1776, was a Thursday.

Maybe you'd like to know what day your birthday will fall on in the year 2,000. The chart will give you the day of any date over a period covering 112,129 days.

Gold and Long Controversy Over Its Role Is Back in the News Again on Two Counts

New York R.—Gold—and the long controversy over its role as money—is back in the news again on two counts:

1. Republican and Democratic platform discussion of the monetary and fiscal policies of our government.
2. The gold-clause bonds by which the Paris government lured 34 tons of gold from the hidden stores of Frenchmen—they still have at least 2,000 tons of it squirreled away.

Gold convertibility went out the window with the great depression. Convertibility means that before 1934 you could take a $5 paper bill to the treasury and get a $5 gold piece for it.

Congress can restore convertibility anytime with a law ordering the Treasury to both buy and sell gold at a fixed price on demand. This would mean coinage of gold. U. S. gold stocks are so high that this is entirely feasible, many argue.

Under the present law the Treasury buys at the fixed price of $35 an ounce. But it doesn't redeem bills in gold, nor sell gold to American citizens except for commercial use—to fill teeth or make jewelry.

This year the Republican platform pledges the party "to restore a domestic economy and to use our influence for a world economy of such stability as will permit the realization of our aim of a dollar on a fully convertible gold basis."

That would seem to mean: "We can't go back on the gold standard

Legion Home Porch Scene of Meeting Of the Auxiliary

Members of American Legion Auxiliary, Chief Conplanter post, elected delegates to the Philadelphia convention at a business meeting and enjoyed a tureen dinner on the porch of the Legion Home, Tuesday evening.

Mrs. John Dahler, Jr. conducted the business session and letters of acknowledgement from the Jaycees were read thanking the unit for contributions to the July 4th celebration and for tickets to the circus for underprivileged children. A letter from Beverly Sidon thanking the auxiliary for enabling her to attend Keystone Girls' Camp at Camp Legion, Scotland, Pa., was read by Mrs. Carter Rowland, Americanism chairman.

It was voted to bring up to date the memorial collection of books in memory of deceased members in Warren Public Library and a report of the June meeting of Elk, Forest, Warren and McKean County Council was given by Mrs. Ralph A. Harrah. Among officers selected to serve the council during '52-'53 will be Mrs. John R. Dahler as sergeant-at-arms.

Delegates named to attend the annual convention of the American Legion Auxiliary at Philadelphia, August 6 to 9, were: Mrs. Merle Graham, Mrs. William McMillan, Mrs. Ralph A. Harrah, delegates; and Mrs. Mary Rowland, Mrs. Ella Wallace, Mrs. Effie Spidel, Mrs. Hazel Patchen and Mrs. Claude Hoyer as alternates.

Dessert and coffee served by the July hostesses, Mrs. Calvin Burkle, Mrs. Theron Esterbrook, Mrs. Edward Hileman and Mrs. Dupham, concluded the evening.

REPORTING

Here are some recent additions to the regular collection of the Warren Public Library:

The Shrike, by Joseph Kramm, is the recent Pulitzer prize winning play. The background of the story is the psychiatric ward of a city hospital and the plot is concerned with a man's struggle to free himself from a shrewish, possessive wife.

The Golden Hand, by Edith Simon, has as its setting an English cathedral town of the thirteenth century. The superstitions, customs and mode of living of that day are realistically presented in this excellent book.

Music For Mohini, by Bhabani Bhattacharya, is a story of life in present day India. It tells of a young girl's marriage, her difficulties in adjusting to life in her husband's village. There is interesting contrast between the old superstitions and the customs of the more modern city-bred residents of India. The story contains some unusual information about India and its way of life.

The Rouge From Padua, by Jay Williams, is another historical novel, based on an unusual theme. In 1525, Arminius Bosch, a wandering scholar in Germany, becomes involved in a peasant revolt in the town of Hilbronn. Through falling in love with a young woman who is a Lutheran, he finds himself in the midst of the religious upheaval of that time. The theme of the book provides the author with an excellent opportunity for presenting a cross-section of sixteenth-century Germany.

Monsoon Seas, by Alan Villiers, is another of this traveler's interesting books about far places. He gives not only first hand experiences but much of the history of the beautiful and exotic islands of the Indian Ocean.

An Unselfish Mother Is Glad When a Child Goes His Way

THE mother was explaining why her young daughter hadn't gone to Girl Scout Camp, though most of the troop were having a first experience living away from home for a few weeks. With utmost complacency she said: "Linda is such a mother's girl. She would rather stay around the house with me than play with other children. "So as long as she is perfectly happy at home, I don't see any point in trying to get her interested in going to camp." That mother loves her daughter a great deal. But it is a pitiful love because there is no courage in it. It takes firm resolve to begin the slow process of turning children loose, encouraging them to take advantage of opportunities for developing independence instead of keeping them "mama's" children. BEING A GOOD PARENT TAKES COURAGE. It takes a special kind of parental courage to rejoice in the fact a child is learning to think and act for himself, to depend less and less on his parents. The easy way to love a child is hold him close, make his decisions avoid worrying by refusing to let him do anything that will cause anxiety. That kind of love is easy on the parent, hard on the child. To love a child courageously is hard at times, but it is so very worth while. For there are few things more rewarding in life than to watch your son or daughter develop independence and self reliance.

APPEALS UPHELD

Judge Herbert A. Mook of Crawford County, who at various times in the past has indicated he isn't in sympathy with the State Department of Revenue's method of revoking and suspending driving licenses, yesterday in court upheld the appeals of five motorists. In each case the judge held that the 90-day suspension has been drastic and directed reinstatement of the driving privileges.

Numerous Activities Claiming Attention Of Members Discussed by Kiwanis Club

Announcements pertaining to numerous activities in which the club is engaged at present took much of the time at the Kiwanis meeting Wednesday noon at the Y. W. C. A.

The program was furnished by the Rev. Arthur Colley who delivered a talk on his experiences attending the recent general conference of the Methodist church in San Francisco, which proved interesting and informative to those in attendance. Major Charles Shaffer offered the invocation.

Cliff Terry, chairman of the bowling committee, reminded of the near approach of the season and invited members interested to sign up to participate in the league this year.

Howard Lauffenberger urged that members sponsor a "Kiwanis day" for the visit of the Buffalo unit of the Red Cross Bloodmobile September 17th. He announced that the Bloodmobile will be in Youngsville next Wednesday, and August 27th it will be at the Sylvania plant.

Ken Williams made a partial report on the wrestling program staged last Thursday evening as a program. Youngsville will also join in the meeting.

Sam Loomis announced that the program next week will consist of a movie entitled "The Shortest Way Home," sponsored by the Greyhound Bus Lines.

Loomis was reminded of a recent birthday anniversary when the president's committee put him through an ordeal that was supposed to be typical of a ride on one of the City Lines buses.

Visitors introduced were Khar E. McDonald, of Warren; Robert Berger, guest of his brother Dr. Lee J. Berger; Charles J. Bovard, Kiwanian from Kittanning, and the Rev. William Chamberlain, Kiwanian, from Youngsville.

START NEW COURT HOUSE

First pouring of concrete for foundations for new construction at the Crawford County Court-house in Meadville started at 1 p. m. yesterday. Ben G. Hastings, general superintendent for the project, said the footers should be finished within a week. Excavations for the foundation for the new wing at the rear of the court-house are nearly completed and this phase should wind up today, he said. Preliminaries are expected to be out of the way so that bricklayers may start their work within a month, Hastings estimated.

Scramble for Steel Is On Despite the Government Plan to Parcel It to Users

New York &—The scramble for steel is on despite government plans to parcel it out among users. Fears that allocation may force further plant shutdowns in the next few months were widespread. Layoffs won't end with the strike.

Defense plants are to have top priority on steel. Then comes the scramble among the many defense-supporting industries.

The steel industry has a plan, approved by the government, to allocate the metal but many users are bound to be pinched more or less seriously.

In the next six weeks all tinplate made is to be of the type canners use, so that the vegetable and fruit crops won't be lost.

Auto makers are seeking steel ingots they can have mills convert into sheets for them. Detroit fears that in an attempt to keep all industries going at least in part production, the government may funnel too much of the first steel production into the steel warehouses—the source of steel for most of the small users. If so, Detroit may have more layoffs from time to time.

Shipbuilders are without priority for steel for any but naval vessels. They fear that a steel shortage in the weeks ahead will keep them from meeting the scheduled increase in the oil tanker fleet on time for the peak of the winter fuel oil hauling season.

The oil industry says that a shortage of steel pipe and casing means that 9,000 wells planned for this year won't be drilled. The defense goal was for 50,000 new wells in 1952 to assure the nation of sufficient oil reserves in case of war.

New York Acres Are Offices

AP Newsfeatures

BAGDAD ON THE SUBWAY has grown to be quite a town since O. Henry gave New York that nickname. The skyscrapers that have made the city a mecca for tourists from all countries and all states are now valued at one and a half billion dollars. The Real Estate Board of New York has issued a survey of office building construction on Manhattan island for the past 50 years. It shows there are 1,172 office buildings on the fabulous island that forms the center of the city.

"New York is the center of the nation's largest industry—business management," the report says. "Of the country's 100 largest companies, more than 90 are represented in New York with headquarters or branch offices."

"New York has more than 68 million square feet (1,561 acres) of competitive office space—29 per cent of the nation's total in 102 cities. In addition, current building under way or planned will add 2 1/2 million feet, making a total postwar construction of 6 1/2 million square feet."

Forty per cent of all New York skyscrapers were built between 1925 and 1933. There was no new building of this type for six years during World War II, from 1941 through 1946.

HELL'S HORSEMAN

BY WILLIAM HOPSON

Chapter 16

BACK in Smeller-A-Mile the town woke the next morning to the fact that Pete was in charge of Carson's store and that the trader had disappeared during the night.

As for Pete, that worthy hauled out a battered guitar, security for a three-dollar loan to an indigent rider, and gave the strings an experimental twang. The discordant reply was joy to his soured soul.

A shadow darkened the doorway and its maker moved inside. Pete, busy with the guitar, focused his gaze on far away places to woo the muse.

"Where's Carson," asked a hard voice.

"Fahin' maybe. Shore, that's where he went! Said he's gettin' tired of eatin' beef. Let's see now—goose, hooch, loose, moose, noose!" He broke off and tried an experimental line.

Out-of-time strings groaned. "I expect had a squaw who had a pappoose, she—"

"Turn around and stop that noise," snarled the voice.

Pete turned, and found himself staring blankly down the barrel of a six-shooter. At a distance of three feet, its muzzle looked like a railroad tunnel.

"I'm strictly neutral," he said hurriedly. His forefinger caught under one of the strings as he shifted position and the string gave off a mournful wailing. "It's kinda outa tune," he apologized.

"The man moved closer. Pete was a little drunk but now he recognized his caller. It was the man who had been with McBain.

"My name's Horton, in case you're the holder of the Colt announced grimly. "I'm going to ask you some questions. Where's Montana?"

"I'm blowed if I know," Pete answered truthfully.

"Where's Carson?" snapped Horton.

"He ain't here, is he now?" Pete said, and forced down a titter at his own quick wit. "If he was I'd be over in my saloon. Been kinda thinkin' I'd sell out and hit further north. You wanna buy a saloon? Four hundred cash for the stock. I'll throw in the

Chapter 17

THAT evening along about dark, Buckner's Crossing lay like a sprawled black box.

Inside the former station's main room, three lamps glowed brightly, two from the mantel above the huge fireplace and another from back of the short bar the sawman had built. There was a fire in the fireplace tonight because of the cold but because Black Jack Caswell preferred his coffee that way. Ro Rundert stared moodily into the small fire from his position by the mantel. Dutch Saunders ate noisily from a plate of fresh beef brought by Buckner's Assinibine squaw, and half-dozen riders lounged about, drinking whiskey and taking life easy.

Caswell looked at Rundert and chuckled complacently.

"Ye look sorta low, Ro," he observed.

Rundert shifted his position to the other hip and grunted. "Can't get that gent out of my mind," he admitted. "He plugged McBain cold on the train. Mack got on about seven or eight miles from Carson's place. Must have had something to report. I reckon, for he signalled me. Then he spots this Edmonds gent and goes for his gun. Edmonds plugged him cold. You reckon Ramson was suspicious of me all along and had him aboard that train as a sort of bodyguard to see that nothing happened to the girls?"

"Ye talk like a younker," Black Jack grinned. "If he'd suspected anything of the like you'd have been dead by now—shot without warning."

"Talk, talk, talk," cut in the Dutchman's voice from the small table where he sat alone. "Vy you all don't shut up?"

"Why don't you shut up, Dutch?" chuckled Black Jack. "Ro is plumb worried."

Buckner moved over by the fireplace, the flames showing up the gray streaks in his coarse, off-black hair.

"I've been thinking," he said. "Now!" ejaculated Caswell. "I know who your man is."

"Yell!" demanded the Dutchman.

VETERANS' INFORMATION

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q.—I'm an honorably discharged World War II veteran interested in getting a GI business loan to open a neighborhood bakery. What are the down payment requirements?

A.—GI business loans are not subject to Federal credit restrictions. You and your local lender will have to work out between you the amount and terms of the loan he will make to you.

Q.—I just received a dividend credit notice from VA notifying me that my NSLI 1952 dividend is being placed on deposit to my credit. What will happen to that money?

A.—The law requires that such dividends be used to pay premiums which are due and not otherwise paid. Should the dividends not be required for this purpose, you may instruct VA to pay the money to you in cash or to use it to prepay future premiums. Or it may be left with VA where it will draw interest.

Q.—I have just been discharged from the Army after a year in Korea. A leg wound I received while on patrol is beginning to give me trouble. Will the VA give me outpatient treatment?

A.—Yes, post-Korea veterans who need outpatient treatment for service-connected disabilities may receive needed treatment from VA. In many instances, a prima-facie finding of service-connection is granted post-Korean veterans for purposes of outpatient treatment pending determination as to whether the disabilities are service-connected. Apply for outpatient treatment at your nearest VA office.

LIONS HEAR BRITON

This week's noon luncheon meeting of the Warren Lions' club cannot be called a big game hunt, but T. Kennedy Thom, English student visiting Warren this summer, subdued every Lion present with his well chosen words and genuine frankness. In commenting on his impressions of the United States after a stay of but three weeks, young Thom said he found it to be just as described in his prior to his arrival: Large, fast-moving, hospitable. Interesting also was his description of past and present English economy and world position. He stated that although the present situation in England is not "particularly enjoyable," the Britishers are optimistic that the future has much to offer. He said world peace is their wish and they feel that understanding and co-operation between England and the United States, as well as among other countries of the world, is vital to this end.

Laskaris went the matter of social security for borough employees, to be acted on at the next regular meeting of Council, August 11.

Mr. McConnell again today expressed his regret and that of his family upon leaving Warren. One of the McConnells' last and most pleasant duties in Warren was to be present at Camp Olmsted last night when their son received his Eagle Scout award as a member of Post 2 of the Grace Methodist church. Gerry, who attended high school here, will enroll in the autumn at Randolph Macon Academy, Front Royal, Va.

Mr. McConnell has sold their home at 7 North Irvine street to Mrs. Neil Gerhart of Lorain, O., a newcomer to Warren, and their summer cottage on the Conewago near Lover's Lane to Michael Onufer of 716 West Fifth avenue, a Sylvania employee. A new home in Council Bluffs has already been obtained.

RELIEF ROLL REVERSED

The downward movement of public dependency in Pennsylvania was brought to an abrupt halt in the first half of July as the State's assistance rolls reversed their trend and moved sharply upward. Figures released today by the Department of Public Assistance show that the net increase in the rolls amounted to 10,394 persons. General Assistance, which is the type of aid most affected by changes in economic conditions, increased by 12,250 persons as steel workers and furloughed employees in other industries sought financial aid for themselves and their families to tide them over until the strike is settled. On the other hand, Old-Age Assistance, Aid to Dependent Children, and Aid to Disabled, which are not so quick to reflect economic disturbances, declined.

MARSHALL S. HANSEN, above, of 341 Pennsylvania avenue, west, carried his last load of mail, Wednesday, before his retirement after almost 29 years as a Warren postman. Mr. Hansen, well-known in the borough and well liked by all, started work September 7, 1923. He has served various routes, the longest time being spent in the Fourth and Fifth avenue section, more recently in the business district. Mr. and Mrs. Hansen will leave for Bradenton, Fla., where they have purchased a parcel of ground and will build a home.

Dollar Value At New Low As Living Costs Reach New High

New York AP—The buying power of the dollar is at a new low. The cost of living is at a new high. And some folk suggest that this should shed a new light on many of the facts of life—even including the price of shares on the stock market.

To look at the painful facts first: The government's Consumer Price Index in June pushed above the previous peak reached last January.

Based on this index, the buying power of the dollar has slipped to around 53 cents—that is, the dollar will buy only a little more than half as much in goods and services as it would in the 1935-39 period.

In these terms its buying power has been below 60 cents ever since the post-war inflation got rolling.

Now to take a cost-of-living look at the stock market:

The Associated Press average of 50 stocks is at its highest point in 22 years—expressed in conventional dollars.

But translate stock prices over the years into cost-of-living dollars—that is, value them in terms of what a dollar would buy at the time—and the P stock average now would be below the 1946 bull market peak and also the 1937 bull market peak.

Some brokers, who make a living from selling stock to the public, like to point this out.

"When adjustment is made for the changes in the cost of living and the declining value of the dollar, share prices are in an unexploited range"—that's the way the brokerage firm of Francis I. du Pont & Co. puts it.

In other words, inflation—whether you look at it as the high cost of living or as the shrinking of the buying power of the dollar—is still around, if not so urgent as it was. And brokers consider stocks are still a good hedge against it.

FARM NOTES

In recognition of his leadership in Pennsylvania's grassland program, the big Central Pennsylvania Grassland Field Day August 20 at State College will be dedicated to State Extension Director J. M. Fry, of the Pennsylvania State College, where the event will be held, according to County Agent O. C. Tritt.

As director of the Agricultural and Home Economics Extension Service, a part of the educational system of the College, Mr. Fry is a frequent visitor to Warren county and is well known to many local people. He is heading up the current grassland farming program throughout the state, and also is helping to develop a nationwide program for better grasslands as a member of the National Grasslands Steering Committee.

A member of the organizing committee of the Sixth International Grassland Congress, Director Fry is making a further contribution to a grassland movement that is world-wide. The Grassland Congress will be held at the College August 17 to 23 with the field day providing the program on Wednesday, August 20.

Director Fry's efforts in demonstrating better grassland farming practices and in encouraging their adoption are climaxing a long career devoted to an improved agriculture and better rural living. Even before graduating from the College in 1917 he became identified with extension work in agriculture and has continued in that service ever since. The last ten years he has administered the program for the whole state.

Although eligible for retirement last June 30, for which he had planned, Mr. Fry has yielded, meanwhile, to requests of the College administration to continue at his post for the remainder of the year.

CLARK'S NEW AIDE—British Maj. Gen. S. N. Shoosmith is the newly appointed Deputy Chief of Staff to American Gen. Mark W. Clark, Supreme Commander of UN Forces in Korea. Shoosmith is the British Joint Services Commander. His appointment is the result of recent English criticism of American military action undertaken without consultation with British military circles.

Warren Minister Delivers Talk At Old Timers Reunion

Ludlow.—An Old Timers Reunion was held at the Covenant church in Sheffield on Sunday in celebration of their 65th anniversary with the Rev. David A. E. Carlson, of the Bethlehem church, of Warren giving the principal address and with the Rev. Wallace Carlson of Ludlow opening the program. The afternoon service included vocal duets by Mr. Axel Nelson and Mr. Gideon Edstrom of Jamestown, trumpet solo by James Vile accompanied by Charles Young, and an organ-piano duet by Mrs. Rudy Nelson and Mrs. Paul Lindberg. Greetings were given by the Rev. O. R. Swanson, superintendent of the Middle East Conference from former pastor and members with communications read by Miss Rose Nelson. A picnic was held at Wildcat Park at the close of the meeting.

An interesting history was given of the church which was organized on August 25th, 1837 specifying the aims of that church. At present general repair is being made on the church. Their first daily vacation bible school was held this summer under the direction of the Rev. Wallace Carlson with 83 enrolled. A Bible Club has also been organized with an average attendance of twenty people.

The Rev. Wallace Carlson was the honored guest on Monday evening, July 28th, when the congregation gave a farewell party for him. He will leave on Friday to resume his studies at the Covenant Theological Seminary in Chicago. Another student of this seminary will take his place and arrived in time to be introduced by Pastor Carlson to the Ludlow and Sheffield parishes on Sunday. He is the Rev. Raymond Dahlberg of Chicago and he will reside in Sheffield.

Tips on Removing Lipstick Stains

Some lipstick and rough stains come out in regular laundering, but others need a special treatment. For a stubborn stain on washable material, rub vaseline or glycerine into the stain, then launder in the usual way, suggests Mrs. Geraldine Johnston, home economics extension representative, Warren county.

If a lipstick stain is not removed before laundering, it may be necessary to use a bleach. Sponge the spot with a sodium perborate-peroxide solution (1 teaspoon sodium perborate to 1 pint peroxide). Rinse well in clear water. If the stain remains, repeat the sponging and rinsing several times. When this treatment is not effective, sprinkle the dampened area with dry sodium perborate and let stand for a half hour, then rinse well. Be sure the fabric is colorfast before using a bleach.

On non-washable fabrics, rub vaseline or lard into the stain, then sponge with carbon tetrachloride. If a trace of color remains, sponge with denatured alcohol. For acetate and colored fabrics, dilute the alcohol (1 part alcohol to 2 parts water).

You can remove all nail polish from any fabric except acetate if you sponge the stain with acetone or a nail polish remover. Because acetone will dissolve acetate, Mrs. Johnston suggests this treatment: Wet the stain with carbon tetrachloride, then apply a drop of banana oil and brush lightly with a soft cloth, using an upward motion to pick up the dissolved polish. For heavy stains, use a soapless shampoo with the banana oil. If color remains after the polish is dissolved, sponge with the bleaching solution suggested for lipstick stains.

Campus Fashions Feature Favorites

On the campus this Fall, these are the hat styles that male students will favor most. For spectator sportswear (upper left), there's a tyrolean felt with contrasting narrow band and small feather. The wool cap stages a comeback (lower left) and is shown here in a checked design. It's styled with less brim. Deerstalker (above) is borrowed from Sherlock Holmes, looks well on a college student, too. The new, narrow brim appears (upper right) in a felt hat with center crease. Rough, tweedy mixture makes a second tyrolean hat (lower right), this one with rope band. It's ideal for wear with sports jacket and slacks.

Will a Modern-Day Tom Swift Give Flying Saucer Plans To Pentagon Chairborne Eagles?

By HAL BOYLE
New York P—It must be Tom Swift.
Yes, who else could it be but the boy inventor, flying those saucers around?
You remember Tom, the All-American boy inventor. He took where Thomas Edison left off. He Horatio Alger heroes were scheming opportunists, the Rover boys were juvenile hoboes, and Frank Merriwell was a tramp athlete compared to Tom Swift, the dedicated youthful scientist.
A generation ago he was the fictional hero of every near-sight-lad whose scrawny frame compelled him to believe in the power brain over brawn. How they loved to read about Tom Swift and his motorcycle, Tom Swift and his glider, Tom Swift and his submarine, Tom Swift and his flying machine, Tom Swift and his pogo stick.

Some one of these days a tall elderly man, not unhandsome despite his greying temples, will stride into Air Force Headquarters in the Pentagon, lay a bundle of blueprints on the desk and say: "Here are the plans for my flying saucers. I give them to you as a patriotic service."
"And who are you?" will ask the chairborne eagle.
"Just Tom Swift," will come the firm, but modest reply.
I hate to think what will happen then. Three Air Force cops will hit him from three sides and cart him off to a psychopathic ward, as the fine old inventor yells, "I am, too, Tom Swift! I am! I am! I am!"

And that will be the end of Tom Swift and his flying saucers.
The reason I believe that the flying saucers are a Tom Swift invention is that I can't understand the Air Force's attitude toward them.
It has checked some 2,000 reported sightings of "flying saucers" in the last year—25 per cent by military pilots—and says 1,600 of them can be explained as optical illusions, caused by weather conditions. Some 400 cases are still left unexplained, but the Air Force says it sees in them no pattern inimical to the United States.
What puzzles me is why, with all the thousands of American airmen in the sky in the last World War, no flying saucers were reported before 1947. Were optical illusions and weather changes invented in 1947?

Nope, I still believe there is something besides illusion to it all. If it isn't Tom Swift, then some other inventor is fooling around up there—maybe Jules Verne.
There is one other possible explanation. I heard one small girl tell it to another.
"Of course, there aren't any flying saucers," she said. "They're just like Santa Claus and the Easter Bunny—it's your father and mother, all the time."

VACATION TIME

By Margaret Rorke

From the mountains folks are pouring
For a visit to the plains,
From the cities they're exploring
In the mountainous terrains.

They are rushing by the legion
North and south and east and west,
Each to see the other's region
At a wanderlust's behest.

They are golfing, fishing, hiking.
They're in ships and cars and planes.
They are swimming, dancing, biking.
They're in motor boats and trains.

They're the folks across the nation
Oh, so tired, as they'll attest,
That they needed a vacation
Just to get a little rest.

Oil Festival Queen Candidate Sought By Titusville VFW

Titusville Herald: Applications from candidates for Queen of the 1952 Oil Festival will be accepted within a week, the Veterans of Foreign Wars Oil Festival committee announced yesterday.
The application blanks will be printed in this newspaper early next week, probably on Monday. The girl who wins the Queen's crown will rule over the annual oil celebration here August 25th through 30th.
The V. F. W. committee announced the following tentative program for the celebration:
Monday, Aug. 25—7 p. m., Oil Queen selection. 9 p. m., old-fashioned round and square dance.
Tuesday, Aug. 26—Water carnival and contests (subject to approval of Recreation Commission).
Wednesday, Aug. 27 — Drake Day. Matinee at carnival, all rides 5 cents for children.
Thursday, Aug. 28—Kiddie parade and contests at Carter Field.
Saturday, Aug. 30 — Matinee at carnival, all rides 5 cents for children. 3 p. m., Oil Festival parade.
The committee revealed that a feature of the carnival will be the highest away pole act in the world. The aerialist, billed as "The Sensational Williams," uses a 140-foot pole and has no net beneath it.
Seven bands and drum and bugle corps have promised to march in the Oil Festival parade so far and others are expected. The committee said the parade is expected to be one of the best in years here and competition for prizes will be unusually keen.
The festival committee said its solicitation committee is now collecting pledges and calling on business and professional men who have not been contacted before.
Scout Leader William Cogan told the committee that the Colonel Drake Scout Council plans a pilgrimage to Drake Well Memorial Park during the festival. The scouts will parade to the park with their own marching units and floats.
The Lisbon earthquake of 1755 produced waves on Lake Ontario.

Sunset Loop Faces Some Hot Baseball in Make-up Games; Youngsville Merchants Lead

The Youngsville Merchants 1-0 shutout over the Warren Elks and Warren Business School's 7-5 upset of the Warren Merchants in Sunset Baseball League action last night, throws the second half lead into possession of the Youngsville nine, but there's still a hot race ahead with four make-up games remaining.

The out-of-towners and Warren Merchants were previously deadlocked in the race with four wins and three losses apiece.

Although Kenny Thompson pitched beautiful three-hit ball for the Elks, the tight Youngsville defense behind Elmer Haight, kept the losers' six hits from paying off.

Collaborating for its three hits, Youngsville scored the winning run in the first when Norma Haight and George Luck singled and Ross Ananea slammed a long fly to score the former.

The Elks threatened to score in their top of the seventh with two men on and two outs, but Haight fanned pinch-hitter Diz Hines with three straight pitches to climax the game being played at Wilder Field.

At Memorial Field Carl Falvo hurled a 7-hit game for the Schoolboys, the loss going to Rod Kerchner, who gave up nine safeties.

A three-run homer by Shanshala gave the Merchants a good shot in the arm the first inning, but the Business School showed two across in each the third, fourth and fifth frames and one for insurance in the sixth to outdo even the losers' two-run attempt in the last inning.

In the third the Schoolboys scored on Ray Ritchie's single, two walks and two errors. The fourth showed Bill Weldert fanning, but making first on Shanshala's error, followed by Guy Bearfield's single and Hud Berdine's three-bagger that scored the two men on base.

Dave Lopez led off the fifth with a double, Campbell dropped John Castagnino's fly, and Pete DuDuck reached first on a FC as Lopez was tagged at the plate. Shanshala then tried to throw DuDuck out at second and Castagnino came in, DuDuck taking third and coming in on Falvo's fly. Castagnino's double scored Bonavita for the last run in the sixth.

In a last desperate attempt in the seventh, Campman singled, Baldensperger fanned, Kerchner was safe at first on DuDuck's error and Dick Reed singled to load the sacks. Jack Baker struckout, but Dean Kifer singled scoring two men, and Dave Bevevino fanned to end it.

Roberts and Shantz Go on Accumulating Big Loop Victories

By JACK HAND
P Sports Writer

Robin Roberts is proving his right to the title—best pitcher in the National League.

While Philadelphia leads the rest of the nation in going wild over little Bobby Shantz of the A's, Mr. Roberts quietly piles up wins for the Phillies.

Shantz probably will beat him to the 20-win poll for he goes after No. 19 today in Detroit, but Roberts won't be far behind. He leads the National with 16 wins after last night's 7-3 success against Cincinnati.

The Phils continued their surge in the National with a sixth straight rally in the eighth. Willie Jones' three-run homer featured the attack. Willie also hit a homer in the seventh.

Brooklyn snapped its five-game losing string, shading Pittsburgh 4-3 in the 10th on Carl Furillo's first hit in 16 times at bat. The victory added a half game to the Dodgers lead, now measuring 4½ games, after the runnerup Giants split a two-night double header with Chicago. The Giants won the opener, 10-6, taking advantage of three Cub errors to score four in the eighth, but Hank Sauer's 25th homer helped Johnny Klippstein take the second, 6-2.

Warren Spahn cooled off the sizzling St. Louis Cards as rookie Ed Matthews hit a two-run homer off Joe Presko for a 2-1 Boston triumph, Stan Musial's 14th homer was one of the Cards' seven hits.

The New York Yankees 9st, 7-0, to Chicago but their American league lead remained at three games because Cleveland also fell before Boston, 5-4. The Red Sox's triumph over Bobby Feller left them in third place only 3½ games off the pace.

Washington ended a four-game losing streak, whipping St. Louis, 6-2, on Bob Porterfield's five-hitter, to pull within 5½ games of the Yanks. Alie Clark's two doubles drove in all the runs for Philadelphia in a 4-3 squeaker with Detroit.

Phalanx Beats First Methodists After An Earlier Defeat

Phalanx Fraternity softballers drew the curtain on their 1952 Y-Church League campaign with glory last night, when they defeated the second-half champion First Methodist team, 8-5, at Beatty School Field. The winners had been eliminated from the close race when they received a wallop from the First team on Monday.

Dick Smith, hurling his first game of the season for Phalanx, received fine support as he scattered nine hits over the nine inning stretch, while Jim Farrell, veteran moundsman, was hit 10 times for First.

Phalanx drew first blood in the second inning with three tallies, picked up one more in the fourth, and put the entire order to bat in the sixth for a deciding four-run rally. The champs acquired two in the third when Frank Nichols blasted a beautiful two-run homer, added one in the sixth frame and came back in the bottom of the nine with two more.

Topping the order for the winners were Chuck Henderson, who smashed a homer and single in five trips, John Hanna and Fran Masterson each hitting two for five, and Anderson twice in four trips. Nichols had 2-5 also for First.

On Friday Bethel EUB and Grace Methodist will make-up their last game of the half and the former will then go into the playoffs for the championship.

Johnny Saxton Wins From Akins, Plans To Face Castellani

Chicago (AP)—Johnny Saxton, a muscular, power-punching 23-year-old Negro from New York, will risk his undefeated record against Rocky Castellani, a classy middleweight, on Sept. 8.

The match was in the International Boxing Club's bag even before Saxton entered the Chicago Stadium ring last night and pounded out a unanimous decision over Virgil "Honeybear" Akins of St. Louis.

Saxton, outweighing the No. 3 lightweight contender 147 to 138, used the nine pound pull to wear Akins down starting with the sixth round. Up to that point the St. Louis slugger with the vicious straight right smash gave the nifty New Yorker trouble.

The fight was only two minutes old when Akins, 24, caught Saxton flush to the chin with a long overhand right. Saxton went down and back on his haunches—the first time he had ever been knocked off his feet in three years of campaigning.

Brooklyn Snaps Five Game Losing Streak

Brooklyn snapped a five-game losing streak by coming from behind to beat the Pittsburgh Pirates 4-3 in 10 innings yesterday.

With one out in the ninth Roy Campanella homered to send the game into overtime. Carl Furillo's first hit in 16 times at bat scored Bobby Morgan from second base in the 10th with the winning run.

Pittsburgh held a 3-1 lead going into the last of the eighth when Brooklyn scored its second run on two singles and two errors.

Johnny Merson led the Pirate attack with a homer and double. The defeat was charged to Bob Friend who relieved Howie Pollet in the ninth.

Monte Irvin Will Start Friday Game

New York (AP)—Monte Irvin, pronounced fit for return to duty, will get his first starting chance of the 1952 season tomorrow night when the New York Giants engage the Pittsburgh Pirates.

It was on April 2 that Irvin suffered a multiple fracture of his right ankle while sliding into third base in an exhibition game in Denver. At the time they despaired of Monte ever playing again. At best, they said, he might be able to resume his playing career next season.

"I heal fast," said the undimmed Irvin as he lay in a hospital cot with his encased right leg supported by pulleys. "I got good bones. I'll be ready to play by Aug. 1."

Even Irvin didn't realize then what a crystal gazer he was to turn out to be. For that is the exact date Monte is slated to make his first start. His pinch-hit appearance last Sunday against Cincinnati was the first time he had seen action since his mishap. He went in as a pinch-hitter against the Chicago Cubs last night but was called out on strikes.

Penn State Proud Of Records Set By Little Ashenfelter

State College, Pa.—Perhaps least surprised by Horace Ashenfelter's record-shattering victory in the 1952 Olympic steeplechase were the people who knew him as a college undergraduate.

This slight, spindly farm boy filled a giant-killing role throughout his college career, and for this reason became known to his Penn State followers as "Fearless Fiddick."

The campus-imposed sobriquet was recalled again when the 6-foot-10, 140-pound FBI agent sped to a wholly unexpected victory over Russia's Vladimir Mazantsev in a smashing final to American domination of 1952 track and field.

Ashenfelter's incredible time of eight minutes, 51 seconds set a new standard for this event, brought Uncle Sam his first triumph in the 3000-meter steeplechase, and gave America the win it least expected in this international carnival.

Ashenfelter's college coach, Charles (Chick) Werner, who once predicted that "Ash can do anything he sets out to do," smiled indulgently as his prize protege brought Penn State the first individual gold medal it had ever won in Olympic competition.

And what pleased Werner most was the knowledge that it was he who made it possible for Ash to follow track and still fulfill his deep sense of parental obligation.

"Ash, who had run a little as a freshman, went to war, of course," Werner recalls, "and married before he returned to the campus again in 1946. Gerry Karver and Curt Stone already were back and running as they had never run before."

"Ash looked at the situation squarely, though the task was overwhelming, and decided dutifully to go to his father's farm at Collegeville each week-end to help with the chores. Several times, he told me I'd better forget about him because he wouldn't be available for week-end meets."

"But," Werner adds happily, "I stuck with him, urged him to work out during the week, and make up his mind about track only after he had given himself a fair chance."

Ash showed steady improvement that year and the next, crowded Karver and Stone throughout their college careers, and in 1948 emerged as a champion in his own right.

His progress thereafter was even more marked, culminating in national recognition and eventually, in the 1952 Games at Helsinki, Finland, in international acclaim.

American, Japanese Swimmers Set New Marks at Helsinki

Helsinki (AP)—An American woman and a Japanese man set new Olympic swimming records today as the swimmers continued the practice of smashing a record in nearly every event.

After Japan's Shiro Masahime had wrecked the old Olympic mark for the men's 1500 meter freestyle swim with a time of 45 minutes, 34 seconds, Evelyn Kawamoto of Hawaii won her heat in the women's 400 meter freestyle in 5:16.6 for another new Olympic record.

Three other men also bettered the old record for the 1500 of 19:12.4, set in 1952 by another Japanese star, K. Kitamura, but none could come close to Masahime's time.

Miss Kawamoto broke the women's record of 5:17.8 set by Ann Curtis of the United States in 1948.

Second-fastest heat winner in the 1500 was Brazil's Tetsuo Okamoto in 19:05.8. Jimmy McLane of New Haven, Conn., the defending champion, won his heat in 19:09.3. France's Jean Botteux, winner of the 400-meter freestyle title in record time yesterday, was timed in 19:12.3.

Still another Olympic record fell in cycling—the first of the games in that sport. Australia's Russell Mockridge won the gold medal in the 1,000 meter time trials in 1:11.1.

Going into the day's program Russia had 523½ points, the United States 463.

Yesterday the United States picked up 14 points in the women's springboard diving when Mrs. Pat McCormick, a 22-year-old Long Beach, Calif., housewife, finished first and Mrs. Zoe Ann Jensen of Oakland, Calif., third.
